No. R. 1276-318—L. R. 83-05-1, dated Bangalore, 28th July 1905.

Order.—In Government Order No. 1044-71-29, dated the 10th May 1898, the Heads of Departments and the Deputy Commissioners of Districts were requested to submit to Government by the end of May of each year a list of all the persons in their offices and districts who are eligible for appointment as Amildars and Deputy Amildars. For this purpose a form was prescribed in Government Order No. 18509-59—G 4002, dated the 6th May 1893. The lists now received do not show any uniformity either in the mode of preparation or in the nature of the information furnished. To avoid the inconvenience caused thereby, recommendations in future should be submitted in the form now revised. It contains instructions as to how the columns should be filled up, and it is believed that they will serve the purpose of enabling Government to obtain all the necessary information, to decide upon the merits of each candidate without either undue redundancy or brevity as has been the case hitherto.

2. In Government Order No. 8797-837—L. R. 431-04-2, dated the 21st March 1905, the Heads of Departments were requested to submit a mere supplementary list of persons eligible for Amildari and Deputy Amildari. As some changes either with regard to the pay drawn or the eligibility of the persons included in the previous list for the posts recommended or the appointments held by them may have taken place during the course of the year, this supplementary list will fail to provide the above information. Government therefore direct that complete lists of all eligible candidates be sent every year, by the end of May of each year. With regard to the present year, as supplementary lists in accordance with the above Order have been submitted in some cases, Government direct that another fuller list may be submitted by all Heads of Departments so as to reach Government by the end of August 1905.

No. R. 2204-43—L. R. 18-06-2, DATED BANGALORE, 18TH AUGUST 1906.

ORDER THEREON.—In supersession of the orders read in the preamble, the Government of His Highness the Maharaja direct that, hereafter and, the selection of candidates for appointments of Amildars and Deputy Amildars be confined as a rule to the undermentioned Departments only:—

1. Revenue.
2. Police.
3. Judicial.
4. Excise.
5. Survey and Inam
6. Registration, and
7. The General and Revenue Secretariat.

2. Government consider that no useful purpose is served by requiring the Heads of all Departments indiscriminately, and especially the technical ones such as, Engineering, Account, Medical, Education, Military, Palace, Amrut Mahal, Forest, Press, Gardens, Museum, Prisons, Geological, Agricultural Chemist's and Meteorological Departments, to submit such lists. The knowledge and experience gained in these Departments are likely to be valuable only for work therein, and do not afford suitable training for responsible executive work such as that of an Amildar or Deputy Amildar. These Departments furnish sufficient scope for promotion to those employed in them, as the Departmental appointments, both clerical and executive, generally provide for graduated promotion. And both in the interests of the general efficiency of work and of the Departments themselves, it seems to be desirable to confine the aspirations of the employees to the Departments in which they are working, and not to unsettle their minds by making them look forward to promotion in the executive branch of the Revenue line and thereby affect their usefulness in their Departmental work.

3. The Deputy Commissioners of Districts and the Heads of Departments other than those excluded as above, will, as usual, submit for the approval of Government before the end of May of each year, a list in the form appended, of all officials in their respective Departments who are considered eligible in every way for appointment as Amildars and Deputy Amildars.

4. The following rules will be observed in the preparation of the lists.—

(I) No one should be included in such lists, who has not passed the prescribed [illegible] does not possess the character, physique and general aptitude necessary for efficient discharge of the important executive and active duties of the head of a

Preference will be given to candidates otherwise eligible, who have qualifications in equitation as prescribed in Notification No. R. 4524, dated the 10th

) The minimum pay qualifying a person for inclusion in the list of eligible for Amildari should ordinarily be not less than that of a Deputy Amildar. which grade must be regarded as having a preferential claim for promotion over others. But, if the Deputy Commissioner or the Head of the concerned considers that an official whose pay though below Rs. 100 is 70 and who is otherwise competent, is deserving of exceptional rounds such as his special qualifications or his belonging to a class resented in the public service, his name may be included in this list. In the column for remarks (No 17), reasons should be assigned for such special recommendations.

(IV) In the case of candidates for appointment to the Deputy Amildar's grade, the pay of the official selected must not be less than Rs 70, except in the case of Taluk Sheristadars and Police Inspectors who have qualified themselves by passing the prescribed examinations and are in the opinion of their superior officers fit to be promoted to the responsible position of Amildars and Deputy Amildars In exceptional cases, however, the names of officials drawing Rs 50 and above but below Rs 70 may be included in the list subject to the same conditions as in Rule (III).

(V) Officials who are 50 years of age or above should not be included unless they have shortly before been employed in executive capacities, in which case the necessary particulars should be noted in column 9 of the list.

(VI) To facilitate the preparation of lists as above, and also to regulate promotion among the officials themselves in the office, a register should be maintained in every office of all officials who have passed the Local Service Examinations, the names of those regarded as eligible for appointments as Amildars and Deputy Amildars being entered in red ink therein

5. Government, after scrutinizing these lists and taking into consideration the special qualifications of each candidate, including his pay, experience, aptitude and character, will cause a consolidated list to be drawn up, the names being arranged in the order in which appointments to vacancies in the grades of Amildars and Deputy Amildars are to be ordinarily made Copies of this list will be sent to the Revenue Commissioner and Deputy Commissioners. Vacancies will, as far as possible, be usually filled up in the order recognized in the list. It is, however, to be understood that the position in the list does not confer by itself any right to claim a particular vacancy, any right of precedence, as it is inexpedient to lay down any hard and fast ru for selection of and precedence among candidates, as so many different consider as enter into the question of a candidate's eligibility.

6. As a rule, no person will be confirmed as an Amildar or Deputy Amildar until after he has acted for one year, and then only on a special report on the nature of his work, and on his obtaining a certificate of equitation as prescribed in Government Notification No. R. 4524, dated 10th June 1903, if he has not so qualified himself prior to appointment as Amildar or Deputy Amildar. Persons appointed as Amildars will begin as Amildars of the last class. It should be distinctly understood that promotions of Amildars from one class to another are not to be made as a matter of course on grounds of seniority, but are dependent upon the work of the officers concerned being reported upon favorably

7. In the case of temporary vacancies, Government observe that the practice of obtaining the sanction of Government to every appointment before giving effect to it has often resulted in delay and inconvenience, and that it is desirable to delegate a certain degree of initiative to the Revenue Commissioner and the Deputy Commissioners of Districts in the matter. It is therefore laid down that the Deputy Commissioner of a District in which a temporary vacancy has arisen will select from the approved list of eligible candidates the person who is nearest to the place where the vacancy has occurred, or who can otherwise be spared with least inconvenience, and recommend him to the Revenue Commissioner, who, if he approves of the selection, will direct the person selected to be placed in charge of the taluk or subtaluk concerned and report the fact to Government for formal approval.

R. 18-06-29, DATED BANGALORE, 12TH MARCH 1907.

sts have not all been prepared in strict conformity vernment Order No. R. 2204-43—L. R. 18-06-2, dated cases the date on which the official began to draw wn, and in almost all the lists, information as to when r the official concerned obtained an equitation certificate, future, information should be furnished in strict conded in the prescribed form.

dates also, the rules do not seem to have been pro- been included in the lists, which should not have t submitted by the Deputy Commissioner of the Kolar heristadar who was once fined Rs. 50 in connection with misappropriation by a Gollar, of Octroi revenue in the Chintamani Municipality, has been included merely on the ground of his name having been entered in the previous lists also, without reference to his antecedents or present fitness for the post. This illustrates the need for the exercise of greater scrutiny in the preparation of the lists Deputy Commissioners and Heads of Departments should include only those whom they think really qualified for executive service by character and capacity

3 It is undesirable to try in executive work, officials who are above 50 years of age and who have not had experience of such work till now Government have therefore excluded their names in accordance with the principles laid down in Rule V, para 4 of the Government Order cited above

4 As regards certain officials drawing pay below Rs 70, Government consider that the grounds urged in their behalf are not sufficiently strong to justify their cases being regarded as deserving of exceptional treatment, and their names have accordingly been omitted. Officials who have no special qualifications for executive work, but who are considered quite competent for office work, are likewise excluded, as Government consider that they should look for promotion in their own line

5. One of the officials of the Judicial Department (K N. Narayana Iyengar) is reported to be better fitted for a Munsiff's place than for that of an Amildar, and his name is therefore omitted.

6. With the foregoing observations, the appended list of approved candidates will be forwarded to the Revenue Commissioner and the Deputy Commissioners of Districts in accordance with para 5 of the Government Order cited above.

No. R. 5613-29—L. R. 18-06-43, DATED BANGALORE, 27TH FEBRUARY 1908.

ORDER THEREON.—Government observe that though the lists of candidates received with the above communications were found to contain fuller information than formerly, they are susceptible of improvement in several respects.

2. Government desire to reiterate the observation made in their Order dated 12th March 1907 that Deputy Commissioners and Heads of Departments should include only those whom they think really qualified for executive service by character and capacity. Government also consider that the names of persons who have been expressly declared unfit for executive work should not be entered in the list.

3. In describing the appointment held by the candidate, in most cases the permanent appointment held by him is omitted, merely the acting appointment being given, without anything to show its nature. In the case of appointments with progressive salaries, the pay shown is the maximum, whereas the date given is that on which the official was started in the appointment. Government desire that greater attention should be paid in furnishing correct information under this head.

4. As for the information contained in column 13, it is now given in a form of which little use can be made. The nature of the property, whether a mere dwelling house or lands, is not described and the exact locality in which these are situated is often omitted, only the District being mentioned. Government desire that the information given in this column should be sufficiently complete to enable them to avoid posting an officer to a taluk where he or members of his family may possess interests in landed property.

5. For facility of reference, the lists should be submitted in stitched books of foolscap size, with longitudinal columns.

6. With the foregoing observations, the appended list of approved candidates is forwarded to the Revenue Commissioner and the Deputy Commissioners of Districts in accordance with para 5 of Government Order No. R. 2204-43—L. R. 18-06-2, dated 18th August 1906, and to the Heads of the other Departments concerned for information.
